Ecclesiastical Ministry Charter & Internal Covenant

We, the undersigned trustees and members of T Ecclesia Way, do hereby adopt this Ecclesiastical Ministry Charter & Internal Covenant as the guiding instrument for the administration and spiritual governance of the ministry. This ministry exists to serve the Kingdom of Heaven through the stewardship of resources, the care of souls, the preservation of divine order, and the operation of private spiritual trust.

Article I – Name and Purpose:

The name of the ministry shall be T Ecclesia Way. Its purpose shall include but is not limited to the advancement of sacred trust principles, the spiritual education of members, and the fulfillment of divine commission as revealed through Scripture and private conscience.

Article II – Jurisdiction:

This ministry exists exclusively under ecclesiastical jurisdiction. No civil court, state agency, or regulatory body shall have authority over its internal affairs, unless invited by ecclesiastical consent. The ministry is not a taxable entity and claims full protection under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Article III – Membership:

Membership is by private covenant, invitation, or family heritage. All members serve voluntarily and accept their roles as spiritual stewards under divine law.

Article IV – Governance:

The ministry shall be governed by a council of trustees or appointed stewards. Timothy Parnell Strong shall serve as the founding Overseer.

Article V – Seal and Record:

The official seal of T Ecclesia Way shall be affixed to all official ministry documents. This charter shall be maintained in the private record of the trust and may be publicly noticed at the discretion of the Overseer.

So agreed and established this 6th day of May, 2025.
